

PEACE HAVEN FARM

Presents

Equitation Workshop

First of Two Exciting Events With RJ Sadowski, Jr.

MA Licensed & CHA Certified Riding Instructor/ Horseman and Official Trainer for the Mustang Heritage Foundation

www.peacehavenfarm.com

Saturday & Sunday, February 25 & 26
9:00 am-5:00 pm

Get Ready to SUPERCHARGE Your RELATIONSHIP with your horse

Discover and Repair the Holes in Your Horse's Foundation
Horsemanship in the Morning ~ Riding in the Afternoon

Ground to Saddle – Limited to six participants

- Was your horse properly started? Is your horse holding you hostage?
- Verify when your horse is safe to ride
- Prepare your horse to pass a Pre-Ride Checklist for a safe ride
- Does your horse behave in ways that you do not understand (bite, kick, buck, rear, strike, move while mounting/change gaits, walk off before you ask, bolt, difficult to steer, turn his butt to you, need to be tied for saddling, etc.)

Learn how to use Training Techniques while respecting the Spiritual Nature of the horse
Learn how to replace unwanted behaviors with good behaviors
Learn Horse Behavior, Horse Psychology, Training/Teaching, Riding Techniques, Relationship Building to teach your horse to be a safe, willing partner on the trail or in the ring

Hosted by: Goethe Trailhead Ranch
Goethe State Forest
9171 South East Levy County Road 337
Dunellon, FL 34431
352-489-8545

To register, contact: Lorel Molder: 352-489-8545
RJ Sadowski: 413-634-8800 newenglandbob@aol.com
Paula Harrison: 413-634-8800 peacehavenhorsemindship@hotmail.com

$150 per horse/rider per day

$ 35 per person/per day to audit for 10 minutes or full day

Payment of $150 is due at the time of registration

Be part of this exciting, fun educational opportunity and improve your relationship with your horse!

- Pot Luck Lunch ~ Bring your favorite dish to share with like-minded horse people
- Bring a chair
- Rain or Shine

Three Year Old Bareback & Bitless

Peace Haven Farm Riders Preparing To Leave For Trail